We Dedicate

We, the Senior Class of 1964, respectfully dedicate this edition of the CARDINAL to our friend, our teacher, our coach, and our advisor. His friendly and helpful advice, his guidance in the classroom, and his untiring interest in our school's athletic program have won for him a special place in our hearts. To you, MR. W. C. KIRKMAN, we express our gratitude.

In Memory of

Mary Elizabeth Sower

Haste, therefore, each degree,
To welcome destiny.
Heaven is our heritage,
Earth but a player's stage;
Mount we unto the sky.

FARWELL AT GRADUATION

If we had known you less we would not grieve,
Seeing the year its course has nearly run.
We could be glad our task is almost done,
Glad for the bit of rest we shall receive.
It would not trouble us to leave;
And walking through the halls and classrooms where
We met so often, now their emptiness
Would not matter much; we would not care;—
If we had known you less.

But you have watched our minds and heart grow strong,
Pitted against the problems of the hour.
And you have felt a deep, upwelling power,
As, like a mighty wave, we surge along
Into the future, where our lives belong;—
The radiant future, where our dreams will grow
And flower and fruit upon some distant shore.
To watch our progress there you may not go,
But you rejoice in prospect evenso,
Knowing the promise we have shown before,
Certain of its fulfillment more and more.

DAVID FRANKLIN STOUT
"It's true that time doesn't wait, maybe that's the reason I'm always late."

Class of 1964

HOWARD EUGENE WILLIAMSON

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-four of Franklinville High School, in the county of Randolph, the state of North Carolina, being of sound mind and realizing our impending departure from this school, do hereby declare and make this our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I

To Mr. Yates L. Holland, our regards and respect for his easy-going leadership and our deepest thanks for his interest in us.

ARTICLE II

To Mrs. Mary Montgomery, our dear friend and class sponsor, and Mr. E. S. Thomas, Jr., our guidance counselor, we leave our love and undying gratitude for all they have been to us.

ARTICLE III

To the Faculty, we leave our genuine respect and sincere appreciation for their patience and guidance.

ARTICLE IV

To the underclassmen, we leave our best wishes for their remaining years at Franklinville High School. We trust that they will enjoy them as we have, and we hope that they will remember the class of '64.

ARTICLE V

In our years at Franklinville High School we have accumulated various individual possessions that we now bequeath to some lucky underclassmen:

I, KAY BAILEY, will my seat in the Senior Class to Linda Allred in hopes that she will enjoy it as much as I did.

I, LYNDA BLANTON, will my position as class secretary to Elaine Moore, my position as reporter on the newspaper staff to Melissa Wright, and my superlative, "Most Dependable," to Wayne and Sharon Blanton.

I, JANICE CARTER, will all the joys and fun, as well as work, of my high school life to anyone who is willing to work for it. Thus, I leave with many memories and a desire to go far into the "blue yonder."

I, SHERRILL CURTIS, will my superlative Most Intellectual to Donald Rich and my superlative Most Dependable to Ted Henson. I will my position as chartskeeper to someone who isn't as nervous as I am.

I, CARLEEN DAVIS, will my position on the newspaper staff to Jimmy Sower; my superlative, Wittiest, to Melissa Wright; and my typewriter to anyone who can make it spell right.

I, JUANITA DAVIS, will my seat in the Senior Class to anyone that has worked hard enough to deserve it.

I, JUDY DAVIS, leave my position as president of the Library Club to Elaine Moore; my seat and confusion in Algebra II to Doncella Davis; my many happy memories of high school to Ted Henson.

I, KAY EATON, will my seat in the Senior class to Nina Kidd and my seat in Mr. Thomas' economics class to anyone who will learn more that I did.

I, ALAN HOOVER, leave my position as cheerleader to any boy who can stand six crazy girls and my saw in carpentry to Johnny Hare for sawing fingers.

I, PATRICIA HUDSON, leave my typewriter to anyone who can make it type faster than I could; my position on the newspaper staff to Brenda Moore; my seat in the senior class to Tony Gainey; and all my wonderful high school memories to Brenda Hudson.

I, JUDY JACKSON, will my position as reporter for the Beta Club to Ted Henson, my office of secretary for Public Speaking to Pam Parris, and my seat in English to Doris Cheek.

I, ANN JONES, leave my superlative, Most Attractive, to Peggy Cox; my seat in economics to Pam Jones; and my notebook and pen to "Termite" Teague.

I, BRENDA JONES, will my superlative "Most Athletic" to Brenda Moore and my position as Senior Class Vice-President to Diane Hutchens.

I, RUTH KING, will my seat in senior homeroom to anyone who likes to sit near the teacher; my seat in bus no. 123 to Barbara Evans; my office of Degree Chairman if FHA to Betty Cox; and my position as senior historian to Diane Hutchens.

I, MELVIN LUTHER, will my superlative "Wittiest" to Terry Kivett, if he thinks he can hold straws in his ears. I will my place in carpentry to anyone who likes to work.

I, BARBARA MANESS, will my happy memories as a senior to the seniors of next year. I will my seat in biology to Joyce Blake and hope she understands it better than I.

I, BECKY MANESS, leave my superlative, "Most Versatile," to Melissa Wright; my ability to keep the road hot between Franklinville and Ramseur to Diane Allen; my senior desk to Donald Rich; and Bus No. 122 to Sherry Jones. Good Luck!

I, PEGGY McDOWELL, will my seat in the Senior Class to Emogene McNease; my position as Editor of the school newspaper to anyone who would like the responsibility; and my superlative, "Most Intellectual," to Pamela Jones.

I, JANE NANCE, will my title, "Miss Franklinville High," to Betty Jo Lindley; my superlative, "Most Likely to Succeed," to Pam Jones; and many wonderful memories of high school days to the Junior Class.

I, RANDALL PUGH, will my position as Senior Class President to Ted Henson; my superlative, "Most Likely to Succeed," to Donald Rich; and my place in economics to anyone "hammy" enough to fill it.

I, RONALD RAY, will my memories of Franklinville High School to Linda Allred; my seat in the Senior Class to my brother Dennis; and my job as a carpenter to Allen Hall in hopes he will make more of it.

I, LINDA RUMLEY, will my superlative "Most Talented" to Linda Allred; my seat in the senior homeroom to Maxton King; my love for Ramseur to Pat Ammen; and my many wonderful memories of high school life to Diane Hutchens.

I, CAROL SMITH, will my seat on bus 121 to anyone that can stand the noise and my shorthand book to anyone that can understand it better than I.

I, HAROLD SMITH, will my job as a carpenter to Al Lyerly, in hopes that he will do more than I did. I also will my superlative, "Most Attractive," to Dwight Hall.

I, DAVID STOUT, will my honor of being Mr. Franklinville High to Garry Hoover. I will my seat in the Senior class to Al Lyerly, my superlative "Most Athletic" to Joe Allred, and my ability to get along with Mrs. Shaw to Terry Kivett.

I, HOWARD WILLIAMSON, will my superlative, "Most Versatile," to Jimmy Sower.
